How to get there

By train: The Cathedral is a short walk from Chelmsford railway Station on the main London Liverpool Street to Norwich line; turn left out of the station and continue along Duke Street. The Cathedral is on the left hand side.

By car: The Cathedral should be able to offer parking just a short distance from the Cathedral. See map. Please state on the booking form if you require parking on the day, and nearer the time you will be sent further details about this facility. Note Waterloo Lane on the map. Also note: do not drive under the railway arched bridge by the station in Duke Street as this is a Bus Gate and if you do you will receive a fine!
